

I am very opposed to your recent decision to change ownership limitations on media. For the sake of the public good, please consider rescinding this decision. We do not need more concentrated media mega-monopolies.